

Habitat Fact File

Animal Name:

Wild bear

Vertebrae or invertebrate:

Vertebrae

Wild bears can be found anywhere around the world (what kind of places do they live?): Forests Deserts. Mountains world but it just depends on the temperature they need. Grassy areas have they adapted to their habitat?(thick fur, heightened smell, gills, etc): Bears have long claws and a sticky tongue to help them adapt . What countries would you find them in?:

Canada,Greenland,Norway,Russia Animal and Alaska.

classification (mammal, bird, amphibian, reptile, fish): Mammal

How do they breathe: Mostly through air.

How do they give birth to their young?:

Through a fertilised egg.

Herbivore, omnivore or carnivore?

Omnivore and a little herbivore

What do they eat?:

Grass, insects, fish and plants.

Predator Predator or prey: but also (what a do prey they for hunt fish and who hunts them,?)

and insects. Interesting facts: (at least three)

A bears speed can be up to about 40km/h. Bears are amongst the most massive and dangerous animals. The sun bear is the smallest bear in the world.

Picture: